

Hello brothers and sisters and Youtube family. Hope you are being blessed.

Okay Lord here I am sorry I do feel the pressure or just frustrated with my phone not working properly and the confusing readings concerning “being honesty” Lord. Jesus I’m just confused and when I get confused I feel like I just want to go to sleep.

Jesus responded,
or give up?

Yes Lord give up, but I know you taught me to preserve through every obstacle but I’m trying please help me Lord

Jesus responded,

“Beloved one I am here truly I am. all of these things are sufferings I have allowed dear one. You did tell me that you offered yourself up today for the salvation of souls remember. So please don’t get frustrated at these things beloved. When you have prayed and done all you can and the problem persist recognize that it is a suffering and let it go. In time I will smooth out the situation my little one. For now I want to take to you about the readings I gave you on honesty. I do you want you to be honest concerning the mission I have called you to dear one, share with our children what I have called you to establish .many who are listening in will respond beloved and there are some who will surprise you and come to help. Why are you so fearful?”

Lord you already know the answer. There are some pieces that haven’t come together yet, also lord I always thought it best to wait until you establish something to make it known, you know. Lastly, I just didn’t want to ask people for donations, I honestly just don’t want to put myself out their Lord

“Will you trust me my little one?”

Yes Lord

I'm putting my very small incapable hands in yours Lord they are even shaking. If you want me to do that then I will

"I want you to do that with full confidence that I will provide. Have faith in what am able to do through you. It's simply pride that causes you to not want to ask for alms, but that is your charism my dear one, Little st Francis, how he too first shyed away from initially going door to door to ask for left-over food think how humiliating that must have been for him. Being a wealthy merchant's son, now in beggar cloths and asking for not just food but leftovers. So, you see initially his pride was crushed but, once he tasted the sweetness of his lowliness and saw my abundance provision how it filled him with much joy, and he has taught this brothers to do the same. So, my little one I to know what you going through but I want you to ask for alms for this vision, this established I have entrusted to you. Always remember it's never about you but, there are some souls who haven't given as they should, who hearts have been jaded by charities who have abused fund, I am doing work into their souls to trust my goodness and to also not judge when they give but, give out of love for me, I am also building up many souls who will finance my kingdom and many other projects. There are other souls who are just waiting to give and many who may not comment but, have been following you beloved for a while as they are seeing the immense growth in you they cannot deny the fruit and would love to be a part of this beloved. You will see what I do when you let go of fear, grab my hands in faith and unconditional trust as we do this together. It matters not what attacks and opposition assail you my little one you are not new to that are you?"

I responded,

No Lord I am not

Even before your mission was made clear you were attacked heavily, and I allowed it to grow you in endurance and great faith in me beloved one. So now that you know and yes, your enemies will know go forth with me and with my mother at the helm you will be victorious”

That was the end of Jesus message

So, guys I ask you to pray for me for courage as the Lord and Blessed Mother has made it clear for me to now began to share the vision concerning the community the City of God and even coming before you guys to ask you to come on board with me and partner with me. whether it's in finances, whether it's in prayer, whether it's in resources and whether is in labor for you to come help build this establishment the Lord is putting tother. He is right to say that I would be heavily attacked. That is one thing I haven't shared with the channel, but I remember in the beginning of my walk, probably my first year or so the Lord allowed a heavy trial for two months.

I think I have shared maybe one or two videos but not truly the story. two months of being heavily attacked in my apartment there was a demonic presence that was there, literally a demonic presence. I could feel, it I could sense. Every single night it would attack me. It was so bad guys that I had someone sleep over, but even then, I was shaking like a leaf. I could feel this strong demonic presence for two months every single night. It was just terror, sometimes I would just stay in my car and cry in fear of going up in my room. There was one time I was driving before the initial attack. I felt a presence in my car, and I heard a voices in my car speaking to me “that you're going to get attacked, you're going to get attacked” Like tormenting taunting demons speaking to me that “you're going to get attacked”. I remember speaking back in the car saying “no I'm not, I rebuke you. I command you to leave” and sure enough I got attacked. I didn't know what was going on guys. I had Christians friends leave me and I probably would've left me to as well if I didn't know what was going on because it got to the point where my only hope my only refuge was Jesus.

I had fasted prayed, pastors, prayer nothing had broken through. The Lord had really willed and allowed this immense suffering for two months and I wasn't until I really pressed in for four days with fasting and prayer that he reveled to me it was a strongman of fear that I needed to bind that, accompanied with other demons that I had to cast out of my house. I just remember when I got to the point before the breakthrough happened, I got to the point that I had lost it, I had lost all hope. I had done everything. I was praying and the demons were tormenting and taunting me that the attacks would happen, and it was. So, find myself with faith wavering and I remember being in my prayer closet and I was crying in fear of coming out. I just broke down before Papa God and I said, "Lord why are you allowing this, what do you see in me? I can't do this, I can't do this," and I heard him say so clearly "I see my son". Even at that moment it didn't give me profound peace as I thought, but it gave me courage to face the attacks. I am telling you all that to say at that moment when that was happening, I kept asking "why Lord, why are you allowing this, who am I? I am nothing, I am doing anything. I just go to work and come home and pray and this attack is so intense. Why is the enemy attacking me so hard? At least that is what I thought.

I want to encourage you guys and those who are listening to this message and you find yourself new in the Lord and all hell has come against you and you don't know why, and you don't understand it and the enemy wants you to retreat and give up. Do not retreat, the truth is in the spirit they see the glory of God upon you. They see a glimpse of what your called too so the amount of attack, the amount of opposition your facing guys is the amount of anointing that God has for you in whatever area they are attacking you in.

So, I want to encourage you because I see now 5 years later and I have no idea what else the Lord has in store for me, but I see why the opposition was so fierce to stop me in my first year in walking with Lord. That God had this in store for me. That I would be a blessing to so many people and relieve the suffering of so many. I am just so humbled to walk alongside Jesus to do this work with him.

So, I want to encourage you if your being attacked right now in your walk with the Lord and you're having demonic attacks and having opposition from every angle. Whether is demonic, spiritual or physical, just know that the reason the enemy is attacking you because you are a target. Because you are a target of Gods glory, Gods anointing, and the amazing purpose and destiny he has for you. Do not give up. Preserve trust the Lord and have unconditional confidence in what he has called you too. That he is faithful, that what he started he will finish and complete. As I am saying that I am encouraging myself. I tell you I am shaking in my boots and I'm going to trust Jesus at his word and share my heart, his heart with you guys in hopes that you will come alongside us as we do this work together.

This is another message that was given to me last April for the mission City of God Sacred Heart Refuge Community in Ghana. Thank you for those who are responding and giving donations, God bless you!
